COMMERCIAL DRIVER LICENSE FEES INCREASE AUG. 1

MONTGOMERY — Effective Aug. 1 the Department of Public Safety will increase fees for commercial driver licenses and tests. Legislation to increase the fees collected by Public Safety was passed by the Alabama Legislature and signed into law in May.

“These fee increases will help fund the hiring and training of new troopers and the purchase of equipment needed to support this department’s operations and improve the quality of services to the public,” said Col. W.M. Copping, Public Safety director.

The fees for commercial licenses will increase by $5, and examination fees also will increase beginning Aug. 1. The new fees are outlined in the following schedule:

Commercial license fees:

Class A	$53
Class B	$43
Class C	$23
CDL learner license	$23
School bus only	$23

Examination fees:

Application fee	$25 (includes price of testing, first attempt)
Retest	$15 (paid when a written test is failed and retaken)
Skills test	$20 (skills tests administered by DPS)
